Campus Safety and Security Report

Cape Coral Technical College (CCTC) is an integral part of the community it serves. Concern for the community's well-being, desire to provide services and assistance whenever possible, and a constant desire to support the learning environment are all factors that are inherent in our campus's daily operation and policies. We take a serious, proactive approach with regard to the safety and security of our students, faculty, staff and all visitors who participate in the many activities which we sponsor. We encourage you to join the effort to make Cape Coral Technical College a safe and secure environment for everyone.

CAMPUS SAFETY & SECURITY- POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Cape Coral Technical College provides a two-way radio equipped security guard who helps with the protection of people and property for those hours the school is open. Cape Coral Technical College also monitors intrusion and fire alarms campus wide, with the assistance of a computerized monitoring system.

Every full-time student must visibly wear their student photo ID while on campus. For safety reasons classrooms and labs are locked when in use and restricted from general public access during normal school hours of operation. The Safety and Security team does maintain a daily incident/crime log. The log includes the nature, date, time, and general location of each incident/crime reported.

No college security plan can attain maximum effectiveness unless everyone contributes to making it work.

The following is a list of a few common sense precautions for your safety and security.

- ◆ Be alert of your surroundings at all times, and if you see anything suspicious or out of the ordinary, notify the security guard or staff immediately.
- ◆ Do not engage in any activity that might cause you harm or endanger another person or school property.
- ◆ If you are a victim, intended victim, or a witness to a crime, report it immediately to the administration.
- ◆ If you witness or are a victim to a crime, you must contact administration. Please be prepared to provide the following information:
 - your name
 - description of any injury
 - the location of the incident you are reporting
 - a description of the scene
 - a description of any possible suspects
 - a description of the vehicles involved (if any) and a license number.
- ◆ Become an involved and alert student. Your ideas comments and contributions to our safety and security efforts are encouraged and welcomed. Remember, we are always looking for ways to ensure that our campus is a safe, secure and healthy place to work and study. We challenge you to make this a personal objective while here.
- ◆ Never leave your purse or valuables unattended, even for a brief moment. Secure valuables whenever possible.
- ◆ Always lock your car. Lock valuables in trunk.
- ◆ Do not loiter in the parking lot.
- ◆ Be patient when leaving the parking lots after class. Several accidents have happened either in the parking lot or in the intersections of main streets surrounding CCTC.
- ◆ Walk in a group of with at least one other person.
- ◆ Stay on designated walkways and sidewalks.

DISCIPLINARY ACTIONS

All students enrolled at Cape Coral Technical College are expected to conduct themselves at all times in a manner that will adhere to the state and federal laws affecting Florida educational institutions. Students charged with violations listed in the Student Handbook under LAWS AFFECTING STUDENTS AT CAPE CORAL TECHNICAL COLLEGE and under CONDUCT will be given adequate notice of the charges and allegations against them, and be given the opportunity to address these charges during a hearing.

Victims of sexual misconduct may be asked to provide testimony at the hearing and be allowed to submit information which may also be used during the hearing. In cases where the alleged offender's conduct poses a threat to the campus student body, the Administration may choose to impose an immediate suspension until a hearing can be convened to determine the facts of the case. Both the alleged victim and the alleged offender are allowed to advocate for their circumstance. Disciplinary proceedings involving sexual misconduct can be held even when formal charges are not brought. Both the alleged victim and the alleged accuser will be notified in writing of the outcome of the hearing.

The following actions while on campus shall be considered improper conduct and shall subject the student to disciplinary action which may include disciplinary probation, suspension or withdrawal.
